Background

Virginia (Beckley) Graham was born and raised on a farm in rural Rossville, Illinois, on February 1, 1928. She graduated from Illinois State Normal University in 1949. After teaching for five years, she devoted her life to raising a family. She went back to teaching in 1974. She taught fourth grade at Clara Peterson School for over 20 years. After her retirement, she continued to work with children as a volunteer and substitute teacher at Clara Peterson. She died in February 2003. In memory of Mrs. Graham and her love for children, her family provides a $1,000 scholarship to a PBL graduating senior pursuing a degree in education or child development. The scholarship is administered by the PBL Education Foundation.
